Why They Cry

Sam Betan Young says that in consideration of the enormous National Debt that is being piled up for future generations to pay, there is no wonder that babies come into the world a-crying.

Kills Big Rattler

It seems that rattlesnake season is not over. J. D. Gunter came by the Clipper office Wednesday with a large rattler he had killed on the Walter Creel place one mile east of New Brockton. Mr. Gunter was logging for Bill DeVaughan. He said he and his crew have killed four large rattlers since December 1. This snake had 12 rattles and was approximately five feet long.

Court Oaks Fall

The three giant oaks on the east side of the courtyard have been cut down to make way for beautification of the yard. Two of the trees were badly decayed and were becoming dangerous. They were set out 47 years ago and thousands of people have enjoyed their shade. The City Council and merchants of Elba shared in the cost of removing the trees. A garden club has been organized and its first project will be the beautification of the square. Most of the clubs in the town are cooperating on the project and it is the intention to make the square as pretty as can be done.

According to custom it is Coffee's time to furnish a senator. Representative Larkins has served with distinction and has made an enviable record. Some of the bills he sponsored were:

A bill to provide for the distribution of Anti-Hog Cholera serum, virus and other apparatus to hog cholera immunization agents to bona fide farmers making application. More than 22,000 hogs in Coffee County have been treated through this program.

Cole's Bridge Road To Get Blacktop

Judge J. O. English, chairman of the Coffee County Board of Commissioners, stated Monday that work is progressing rapidly on the three-mile stretch of road connecting with the highway at Tabernacle church and the highway at Wilson's store. It will be blacktopped and will serve an important section of the county.

Methodists Install New Electric Organ

Large congregations Sunday morning and evening enjoyed musical programs rendered by Mrs. W. M. Ringsdorf at the keyboard of the new electronic organ which has recently been installed. Competent critics say the organ compares favorably with the large and more costly pipe organs. It is thought that the installation of this beautifully toned instrument will add greatly to the interest in the church services.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nevels announce the birth of a daughter Tuesday night, January 31. The baby was born on the 12th birthday of her sister, Willie Jim.

You . . . ARE NEEDED IN THE P.T.A.

At the beginning of the present school year the Special Projects Committee of the Elba Special Projects Committee sponsored a program for better playgrounds that would ultimately develop into year round supervised recreation program for boys and girls.

The accomplishments of this program have been very gratifying for everyone. Most of the trees and old stumps have been removed and some of the ground has been machined and leveled. The unsightly old boiler room and chimney have been taken down and moved off the campus. This has all been accomplished with the wonderful cooperation of our city and city officials as well as numerous individuals who have furnished equipment and time, for which everyone is most grateful.

There remains a great deal of work to be done to accomplish the PTA's objective in its entirety, including the filling-in of low places on the back side of the school buildings, removal of the remaining stumps, surfacing for tennis courts, blacktop surfacing in front of the two buildings and building a modern new swimming pool.

The next regular meeting of the PTA will be held February 15 at 7:30 P. M. This date was changed to avoid conflict with the Lions Club. Dr. Thompson of State Teachers College, Troy, will be the principal speaker. He will make suggestions for the carrying out of the supervised recreation program. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

No Fish 'Till 1951

Last week we ran an article saying that fishing would be allowed in the Coffee County Fish pond this summer. Mr. Long, of the state hatchery at Springhill, says that this would be rushing the fish a little. He says the fish being put in the pond now will spawn this summer, but that they will not be ready for fishing until the summer of 1951.

Mr. Long brought the final load of broom Thursday, making a total of 70,000 broom put in the pond. He said that he would be back in April or May to put in 7,000 broom to complete stocking the pond.

It's A Girl!

It's number two for Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Wilkes. The new addition to the family is a girl, Rebecca Ann, born in stillbirth Brooks, a fourth member of the family is not shown in the picture. Mr. and Mrs. James Nevels announce the birth of a daughter Tuesday night, January 31. The baby was born on the 12th birthday of her sister, Willie Jim.

Mr. Nunn reports that more requests for catalogs have been received at this date than on any previous Duroc sale. George W. Bible, nationally known swine expert, Kensington, Ga., will judge the sale offerings and offer his unbiased assistance to those wanting his advice.

Elba Garden Club Is Organized To Work For Prettier Square

In recent weeks Elba people have shown unusual interest in the beautification of their yards. A meeting was called at the City Hall last Friday evening for the purpose of forming a garden club. At this meeting Mrs. T. D. Kendrick was appointed chairman. She named the following committee to elect officers for the club: Mrs. L. P. Mullins, John Garrett, and Mrs. Sam Rowe. This committee was asked to visit the Enterprise Garden Club to get suggestions for the organization and functioning of such a club.

The next meeting is to be held in the Vocational building Friday evening, February 3rd at 7:30 P. M.

March Of Dimes Campaign To End Here Next Week

Elba Drive Directed By Bob Folsom; Aid Badly Needed

Last year there was a 60 percent increase in polio over 1948. This epidemic exhausted the emergency funds of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and this year there is a larger need than ever before for funds with which to fight the polio epidemic. This year the Coffee County quota was set at $2,500. The drive started January 15, but

Help Him Climb

Ronald Kadlec, 6, of Orchard Beach, Me., begins his long climb back from infantile paralysis. Thousands like Ronald, stricken in last year's unprecedented epidemic, need help in their pull back to health. Yet funds of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis are almost gone. You can furnish the help by contributing dollars to the March of Dimes. Join the March of Dimes (January 16-31) with as much as you can give.

Very little money has been raised to date. The drive ends next week with a canvass of Elba. Bob Folsom will be in charge of the Elba drive, according to chairman Dozier Roberts, and will make an honest effort to contact all people in the town. However, this is a big job, and it is very doubtful if it can be accomplished. If you really want to help, and are interested in seeing an end to the polio epidemics, then mail or give your contribution to Mr. Roberts or Mr. Folsom as early as possible.

P.M.A. OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON SATURDAYS The Coffee County PMA office located at New Brockton, Ala., will be officially closed every Saturday all day until further notice. The office will be open Monday through Friday with the exception of holidays. Office hours 8-12 and 1-5.

Close HARMONY

The haberdasherie of bygone days believed in close harmony. We are great believers in close harmony also — close harmony between our policyholders and this agency. Without it we are not able to give the service and the advice which we believe is due those who entrust their insurance business to us. This close harmony shows itself in two ways — we are prompt to report new developments and new changes which affect our clients, and we check periodically to see if there are any changes in the affairs of our clients which will affect their insurance or their insurance needs.

Where We Came In

Lesson for February 5, 1950

A CIRCULAR LETTER came in the other day from a stranger who is not hot and bothered because he has discovered that Jews and Negroes can belong to Christian churches along with white Americans. The astonishing thing is not that that should be true, but that any man would get excited over it. What is so unusual about it? It is that the Apostle Paul was not that Jews were in the Christian church, but that anybody else could be! We must recall that Jesus was a Jew; that the first Christian church at Jerusalem was composed exclusively of Jews.

Dr. Foreman

New Type

THE CHURCH AT ANTIOCH, one of the great commercial cities of the Roman world, was where we Gentiles came in. The writer is indebted to his former teacher, Dr. E. J. Erdman, for noting four ways in which that church in Antioch was something new.

They had no Old Testament. They knew nothing of the Old Testament sacrifices, they had no interest in the Temple or in the history of Israel. Like most Gentiles, they had usually thought of the Jew as a quaint but unimportant minority group. Now that these Gentiles were in the same church with Jews, there would be plenty of room for trouble.

Could a church made up of such different races become a true Brotherhood? So the old mother church at Jerusalem sent up Brother Barnabas to look around. Barnabas was not the church's most brilliant mind, but he had a heart full of faith.

New Leaders

GOD DOES NOT ALWAYS give the greatest successes to the "big names." Nowadays every one who knows his Bible knows Paul and Barnabas, but in Antioch both men were unknown at first and untried.

When God wants a Reformation he calls forth a Luther, an obscure man who never fitted any of the existing priestly molds. When God wanted to open up Africa he called David Livingstone, when he wanted men for the far interior of Asia he called Hudson Taylor. When he wanted light to shine down into the slums he called William Booth.

There are all peculiar men by the standards of their times; but it takes peculiar men to break away from tradition's headfire and break out new roads for the Gospel.

New Center

FOR SOME TIME Jerusalem was the capital of the Christian world. All roads led out from there, so to speak. With the rise of the Antioch church, however, a new center took the place of the old. Jerusalem withered away. In later times Alexandria led, and then other cities.

For a thousand years Rome and Constantinople were the acknowledged centers of the Christian world. Now we have also London—New York—Geneva. Many such centers have small beginnings. In America's early days the churches of Scotland sent over missionary offerings for the help of the struggling little church of New York.

In future years, who knows? Some church in Yunnan may be sending missionaries to the feeble folk left in the war-devastated ex-white world.

Prof. Olen D. Roberson, a member of the Citizen Advisory Educational Council of Alabama, attended the one day annual meeting held in Montgomery on Monday, January 30th.

The purpose of the council, to which membership is limited to a select group of Alabama men and women, is to study educational problems and to suggest solutions for these problems.

Car Crashing Power Pole Drings About 'Dark Doings'

RADFORD, VA. (AP) — There were dark doings in Radford.

A fire burned a wall in the first department.

Officials of the First Merchants Bank had to get a short-term loan from the People's Bank of Radford so they could begin operations.

Three textile plants couldn't work on their textiles.

The Radford News Journal decided to forego its regular Saturday edition, then reconsidered and published an abbreviated edition late in the afternoon.

The whole trouble was caused by a car crashing into a power pole and snapping it off.

Woman Spends 60 Hours Trapped in Midget Tub

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA. — Mrs. Marie Turnquist is philosophical about having had to spend 60 hours trapped in a midget tub.

Her hands were now blistered from efforts to free herself from the tub, but after examination by a physician, she was pronounced surprisingly good condition.

Mrs. Turnquist was occupying the home of a friend, Mrs. Inez Bergant, a midget whose home is widely known for its doll-sized furnishings. Mrs. Bergant was wintering in Florida.

Mrs. Turnquist, whose family call her "Uncle Sam's plump," got into the bathtub—30 inches long, 19 inches deep, and 19 inches wide. She was held fast for 60 hours until neighbors who had missed her broke into the house.

They had not heard her cries for help, but wondered why she had not answered the telephone.

"I just kept praying to get out," Mrs. Turnquist said. "I said, 'Lord, don't you answer? You have always answered my prayers before.'"

New Jersey Court Ruling First Movement of Dogs

TRENTON, N.J. — Somewhere, possibly in dog heaven, "Cracker," a foulmouthed, knows his death was not in vain. That is probably the case, because his death has made all New Jersey safe for all dogs.

In a unanimous decision, the state supreme court ruled that a landowner has no right to kill a dog simply because it is trespassing on his property.

He can kill the trespassing animal, the court said, only if he has reason to believe it is "chasing, worrying, wounding or destroying livestock or domestic animals, his person, his property or that of other persons."

The court made the decision in upholding a $500 damage award to Ralph Egan, Long Valley sportsman, whose hunting dog, "Cracker," was shot to death Sept. 26, 1948, by the son of Mrs. Alvin Shaw Bailey, sheep breeder. A lower court had ordered Mrs. Shaw to pay damages to Egan.

Burglary Suspect Burns As Robbed Safe Open

LOS ANGELES. — A burglary suspect here is convinced that crime not only doesn't pay, but it sometimes develops an ironical twist fit to make any self-respecting criminal blow his top.

Clifford L. Albertin, 35, confessed bitterly to police that he carried off a 200-pound safe from an automobile accessory shop and sawed his way out of the door.

First he hugged the bulky strong-box to his car. After driving to a secluded spot, he pushed the safe open with a sledge hammer. Inside he found $2,000.

Officers who arrested Albertin as he slept, resting from his labors, found $2,000.

The safe was unlocked all the time.

Mrs. A. J. Ward and Edwin recently attended a camelia show in Brewton.

Mrs. James Clark and daughter, Cheryl, of Atlanta, Ga., are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Aude Clark. Mr. Clark is attending the school of Dentistry at Emory University in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Steele recently attended the Jacksonville-Troy basketball game in Troy Saturday night. Max Bowdoin, a former Kinston star, played on the Jacksonville team.

Mr. Raymond Sutherland of Mobile recently visited his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Sutherland.

NO SALE

TOOK A GOOD LOOK

Policeman: "Did you see the number of the car that knocked you down, madam?"

Woman: "No, but the woman in it wore a black turban trimmed in red. And her coat was imitation fur."

More Productivity For More Pay Held Answer to Strikes

NEW YORK—Strikes can be stopped, according to Louis S. Rosenfeld, labor and business make a basic bargain at once of more pay for more productivity.

Rosenfeld, who is chairman of Schenley Industries, says:

"In the more than four years since V-J day, strikes have cost us six billion dollars. What we need now—what would help the whole country—is a five-year moratorium on strikes."

This is a simple swap, between labor and business, that Rosenfeld urges to end industrial dispute for the next five years:

1. For labor—a 5 per cent wage increase each year;

2. For business—a 4 per cent annual increase in labor's man-hour productivity.

He proposes as an old-fashioned horse trade, with firm mutual incentives to keep the U. S. production picture, and he ought to know since his company employs more than 100,000 men.

He came in early Monday morning and made the dispute, decided to use his real name of Edward Thurston at the last moment.

It was more than $100 contracts currently in effect covering plants in nearly two score communities throughout the country and has had "practically no lost time because of labor disputes."

Besides eliminating labor-business discord, his proposal will provide continued prosperity for the next five years.

"The wage increases will put 47 million dollars more in employees' pay envelopes in 1954," he says, "and that will mean a one-third increase in the standard of living."

Naturally, greater productivity and heightened consumer activity will provide the nation with a healthy, expanding economy, an economic climate that is always good for business.

According to Rosenfeld, the U. S. national income should reach $300 billion by 1954, a 33 per cent increase over the 1948 income of $226 billion dollars.

Life Expectancy Greatest In U. S., Survey Discloses

NEW YORK—It is true that life expectancy in the United States is greater for foreigners living here than it would be in their own homes.

There is strong evidence that this is the case, according to Dr. Frank C. Dickinson, economist and statistician of the American Medical Association.

He says Swedes live longer in Minnesota than in Sweden and that there is equally strong evidence that Mexicans live longer in New Mexico than in Mexico.

Dickinson made the comparisons by way of upholding the thesis that the United States is the healthiest nation in the world. He says statistics prove the longer here than anywhere else among the large nations, explaining this recent nation's success with more than 10 million population.

Lad of Five Takes Cab Home After Tiring of Long Wait

MARQUETTE, MICH.—Donald Messier is becoming a little annoyed at his precocious son.

Late one afternoon, as Messier drove into Marquette to pay a bill, he told his five-year-old son, Tom, to wait in the car while he went into the building.

When Messier came out, he couldn't find Tommy. The frantic father drove to several places in Marquette where he thought his son possibly might be, and called police to join in the search.

About 8 p. m., after three hours of fruitless searching, he decided to return home and break the bad news to his wife, Amelia. When he opened the door he saw Tommy comfortably seated in the living room with the rest of the family.

It seemed Tommy had gotten tired of waiting for his dad, and had taken a cab home.

As Clifford finished speaking, Simon, a tall spare man, appeared in the doorway, stopped and looked about in bewilderment.

"I'm Inspector Clifford of police headquarters," the officer said, stepping forward. "Simons, I arrest you for forging Edward Thurston's name to a check for $5,000."

Simon's eyes grew wide as he stared at the officer. "The color drained from his cheeks. For a moment he stared at though struck," then impulsively turned and bolted.

Adapting the move, Inspector Clifford leaped forward, his fingers caught hold of the tall man's collar, and yanked him backward.

"Quite simple when explained," Clifford was saying later. "Simons probably needed money. He was in a jam when Pare was making his deposit, and picked up the blotter Pare had used when signing his name. It was a new blotter, and the imprint therefore was definitely easy to copy for forgery purposes."

This selection of high quality values and variety are offered in the spirit of neighborliness—we assure that any member of your family will receive the best of service and a selection from a full line of famous brands.

"His right name? What do you mean?"

Anthony Pare is a fiction writer. His real name is Edward Thurston. Recently a distant uncle died and left him a small fortune—$25,000—to be exact. Page 6 of the Elba Clipper.

I advised him to invest in anything, while the market was in its present unstable condition. He agreed, and decided to deposit the money in our bank until things looked better.

He came in early Monday morning and made the dispute, decided to use his real name of Edward Thurston at the last moment.
